Dear Dr Sudheendranath,

Thank you for partnering with iNARTE. Enclosed is your official Certificate designating you as an Authorized iNARTE Test Center.

We extend our appreciation for the commitment of your time in contributing to the certification process and the integrity of examination administration. The proper handling of examinations entrusted to your care is essential to meet and maintain standards as well as to insure a fair and meaningful measurement of candidate suitability for Federal Communication Commission (FCC) Licensure and the iNARTE Certification.

As a Test Center you will be proctoring either FCC and/or iNARTE Examinations at the facility you submitted to us for approval. Examinees will register for their examinations through us and we will contact you to confirm a date and time for the examination.

Your fee for Proctoring an FCC Examination, which is up to 3 elements and 4 hours long, is $15.00 which will be paid to you by iNARTE when the FCC examination and applicant information is mailed to you. You may not charge an additional sitting fee for FCC Examinations.

If you Proctor an iNARTE Examination for an applicant in the various disciplines of; EMC, ESD, PS, Telecommunications or Wireless, you will charge your fee direct to the applicant. The fee you will charge is shown on our Web Site, in accordance with the information you provided to us on your application.

You may have applicants approach you directly to Proctor an examination. Please direct them to our Web Site, www.narte.org and register for the examination they wish to take naming your Test Center. Upon receipt of the completed application, we will contact you and schedule a date for the examination.

Please contact us any time there is a change in your point of contact, telephone number or address.

Your authority as an Authorized Test Center is valid through March 31, 2016. You will receive a notice at the time asking if you wish to maintain your relationship with iNARTE.

Again, thank you for partnering with iNARTE and we look forward to many years working with you.

Sincerely,

Brian Lawrence
Executive Director
